

*****

Class - 3rd:-

Term :- 1st.

Sub:-Science/General Science.

Q.No.1 . Fill In the blanks:-

(a) Milk is a complete food.

(b) After the age of six months, babies become capable to ~~digest~~ <sup>digest</sup> semi solid food.

(c) Junk food is not good for our health.

Q.No. 2. Write "T" for True and "F" for False.

- 1) Food is not essential for us. (f)
- 2) Aged members of the family prefer plain food. (T)
- 3) Babies upto the age of six months drink milk only. (T)
- 4) Animals do not need protection and care. (F)

Q.No. 3. Why do aged people prefer to eat food cooked in little oil and spices.

Ans. Aged members of the family prefer plain food. They avoid food cooked with oil and spices. They prefer to eat food which is easy to chew and is easily digestible.

Q.No.4. Is milk a complete food? How?

Ans. Babies up to the age of six months drinks milk only. Yes, milk is a complete food because it contains all the nutrients required by babies to grow healthy.

Do Q. No. 5, 6, and 7 of parts D from page no. , 54 your self.

World of plants :-

Q.No.1. Fill in the blanks:-

- 1) Shrubs have thin & hardy stems.
- 2) Perennials are plants that live for many years.
- 3) Water lily and lotus plants are fixed water plants.

Q.No. 2 Define the following :-Do it your self:-

- a. Land plants
- b. Shrubs

Q.N 3 . what are aquatic plants?

Ans. Water plants are such plants which grow in water . Water plants are also called aquatic plants.

Q. No.3. What are perennial plants?

Ans. Plants that survive for many years are called perennials.

Do Q. No. 5 and 6 from page no. 75 yourself:-

General Science.

Draw a Rose plant and label it.

Draw a leaf from pager no. 77 and label it.